Career Profile
➤ With over 15 years of teaching experience at various colleges (Zakir Hussain College Morning, Miranda House, Satyawati College Morning, Daulat Ram College) of Delhi University and Department of Political Science Delhi University, I have consistently proved my potential and ability to engage students at both UG and PG levels. I have learnt to foster intellectual capabilities of the students by engaging them creatively. I have taught wide range of papers in political science like Political theory, Indian government and Politics, Comparative Politics and Legislative support and Practices etc. I believe in creating a lively and though provoking environment in the classroom that encourages intellectual curiosity among the students. ➤ I try to employ inquisitive and innovative ways to deliver my thoughts in the classroom. I try to encourage students for discussions, field work, research, critical writing, movie screening, interview procedures, debates etc in order to apply concepts of political science in actual reality. My approach does not ends with imparting theoretical knowledge but also focuses on devising ways and means in order to make learning useful. ➤ Besides studies, I believe in all round development of students and encourage them to participate in various extra curricular and co curricular activities of the college and the university. I serve as a mentor for the students in order to help them choosing career paths, preparing for competitive examinations, dealing with various social psychological and personal issues. I try to imbibe in the students the values of being a responsible kind and aware citizen of the nation.
