Career Profile
➤ With over 14 years of teaching experience at Daulat Ram College, I have consistently demonstrated my ability to engage students and foster intellectual curiosity. I have taught a wide range of courses in political science, including comparative politics, public administration, and political theory. I create a vibrant and inclusive classroom environment that encourages critical thinking and active participation. ➤ I have employed a variety of innovative teaching methods, including interactive lectures, discussions, simulations, and case studies, to facilitate student understanding and application of political concepts. I encourage students to explore diverse perspectives, develop analytical skills, and engage in informed debates. My teaching approach ensures that students not only gain theoretical knowledge but also develop the ability to critically analyze complex political issues. ➤ I am deeply committed to the holistic development of students and serve as a mentor and advisor to undergraduate students, guiding them in their academic pursuits, career choices, and research endeavors. I provide personalized support, helping students develop research proposals, refine their analytical skills, and navigate the complexities of political science.
