Comvision 2024

The Commerce Association of Daulat Ram College, University of Delhi, hosted its annual fest, Comvision, on March 5, 2024. The event featured a variety of competitions and speaker sessions.

Three distinguished keynote speakers addressed the audience on various important topics. Mr. Surya Kant Sharma talked about Financial Empowerment through Wealth Creation in Amrit Kaal for a Viksit Bharat. We also had Major General (Dr.) Yashpal Singh Mor and CA Parag Gupta. They discussed the Role of Commerce in the Development of Viksit Bharat 2047.

The Digital Dangal: Model United Nations conference on digital trade and e-commerce, explored regulatory challenges, data privacy, and market access. Resolutions focused on open data transfer, MSME inclusion, and a centralized payment system.

Star in the Spotlight, an Open Mic competition, featured exceptional performances by students from across Delhi University. Participants demonstrated their talents through musical acts, dance performances, and poetry recitations.

Clue-Minati, an engaging treasure hunt competition, comprised two rounds: a preliminary quiz followed by the final treasure hunt. Teams of two to three members competed vigorously, navigating the campus to locate strategically placed clues and secure victory.

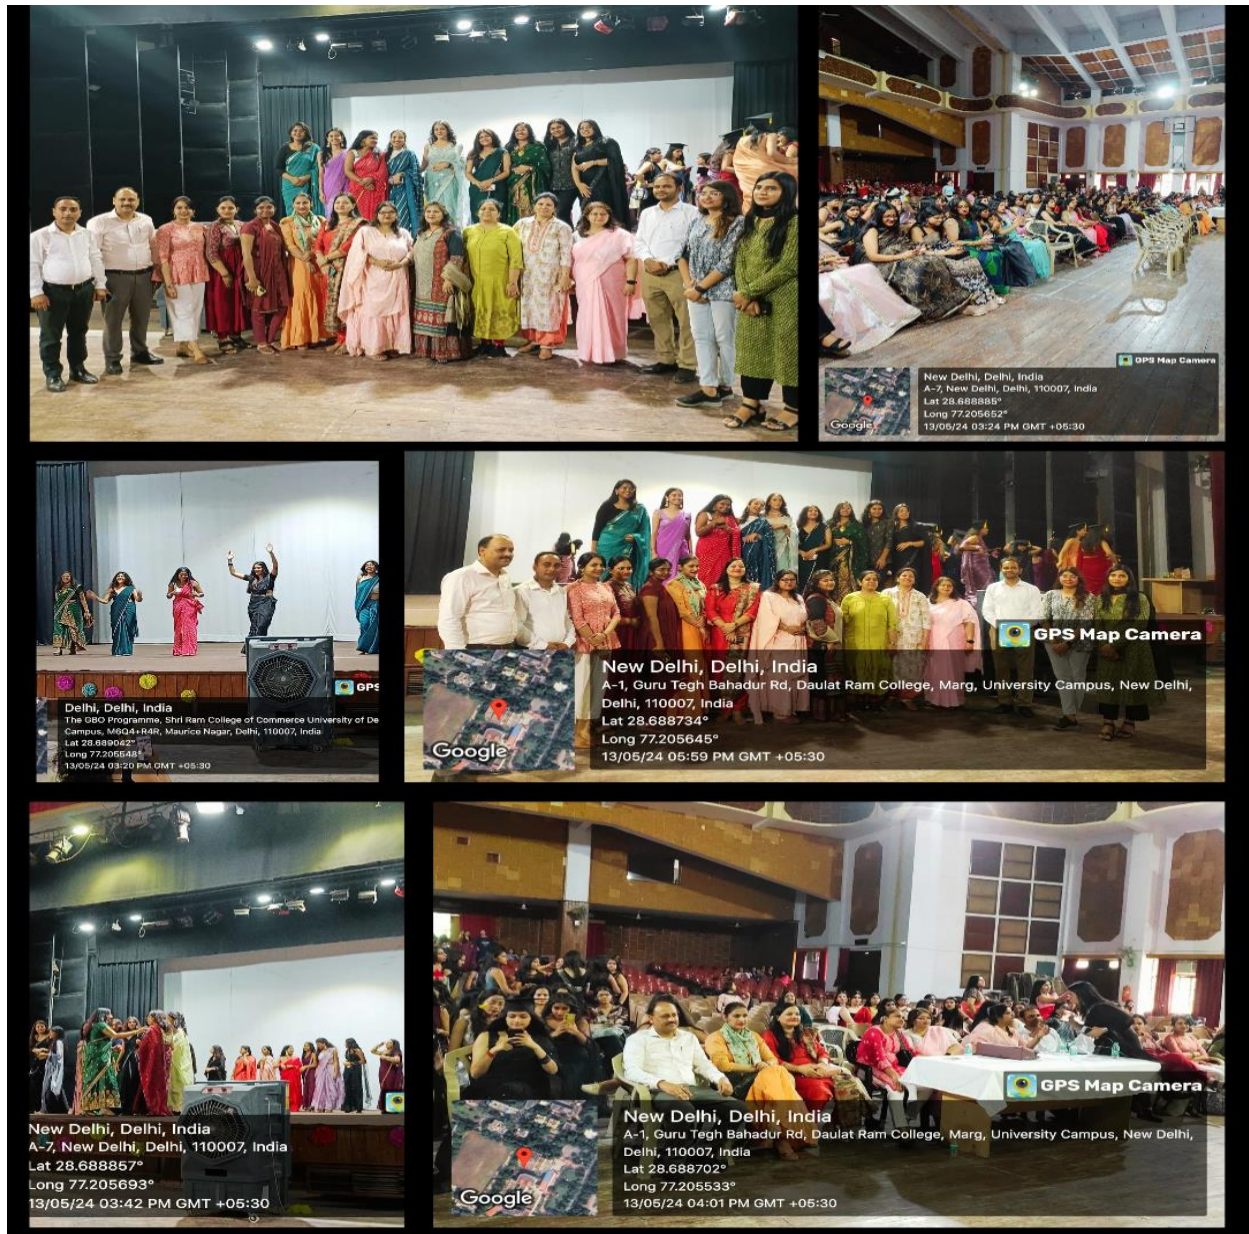

Farewell 2024

The farewell event commenced with a formal welcome to esteemed guests, including Principal Dr. Savita Roy, respected faculty members, and commerce association convenors, recognizing their invaluable contributions.

The program featured insightful speeches that highlighted the academic and personal growth of the graduating class. Juniors presented engaging performances.

The event also included interactive activities such as the Action Challenge and Cup Head Challenge. Additionally, the contributions of student union leaders were formally acknowledged.
