Program Outcomes (PO): B.A. (Honours) Political Science UGCF NEP

Sr. no.	Program Outcomes (PO): B.A. (H) Political Science	Statements
1.	PO1	The political science undergraduate programme equips students to develop a problem solving and critical approach towards political puzzles, helping them in developing a systemic understanding of political issues along with developing sensibilities towards diversity and discrimination, thereby helping them in becoming informed students and active citizens.
2.	PO2	The rigorous interdisciplinary nature of the discipline teaches students to contextualize their understanding as well as understand the interconnections of politics with other social, economic and cultural realities.
3.	PO3	The programme also tests students on various parameters of academic writing like essays, term papers, assignments along with classroom discussion and debates. It also helps in developing their research capabilities by helping them develop questionnaires, conducting field study, conducting interviews etc, thereby training students both in theory and practice of political science.
4.	PO4	On the completion of the six semesters undergraduate course in political science a graduate is equipped with an understanding of the six core areas in the discipline of political science namely Political Theory, Indian Politics, Comparative Politics, Public Administration, International relations and Indian Political Thought. They carry with them an understanding of research methods and investigation as well as field experience of institutional functioning and survey research.
5.	PO5	Given this diverse skill set and knowledge basket that the graduates have; the learning outcomes enable them to seek gainful employment and engagement in diverse sectors such as academics, journalism, law, social work, government agencies and research organisations, human resource development, management marketing and also the bureaucracy.
